

Employee benefit insurance elections cannot exceed net pay. When making benefit selections, it is the employee's sole responsibility to make benefit selections that do not exceed salary after all required pay deductions are made, such as taxes, TRS retirement, TRS Care etc., along with any other garnishments to include child support, IRS garnishments, etc. Salary estimates may be obtained by contacting the PN-GISD payroll department.