

Is your identity leading a double life?

OVER 15 MILLION IDENTITIES WERE STOLEN IN 2014. YOU MAY ALREADY BE A VICTIM OF IDENTITY THEFT WITHOUT KNOWING IT. NOW WHAT?

Victims may discover the problem when they are denied credit or employment, are contacted by police, or receive unknown bills.

- » Identity theft victims suffer an average loss of over $6,000 and spend 300 hours repairing the damage on their own.
- » The value is in the identity, not the bank account.

Armed with your personal information, thieves can:

- » Drain your savings and retirement accounts.
- » Commit tax fraud in your name.
- » Open credit cards or loans in your name.
- » Use your name when arrested for a crime.
