some frequently asked questions about Texas Dental Plans

What is a Dental Referral Plan?

A Dental Referral Plan allows member patients to have their dental fees GREATLY REDUCED by established dental professionals in the community. This is not a Dental HMO plan or dental insurance.

How are dental fees reduced?

TDP participating dentists do not have to complete insurance paperwork or claim forms, have lower billing costs, less uncollectible debts, and can afford to discount fees for the increased volume of patients received through TDP.

Who is eligible?

You and each individual residing in your household may join. This includes family and non-family members. There are no age limits.

What if I have Dental Insurance?

Dental insurance will supersede our program and pay as if TDP did not exist. The member will not benefit by having two programs, unless TDP is used to reduce fees for procedures not covered by the dental insurance.

When will membership begin?

Membership becomes effective when you receive your membership I.D. card. Your card and a Participating Dentist Directory should arrive within two (2) weeks after TDP receives your application.

In emergency cases only, membership becomes effective when the TDP office receives your application and payment. TDP will verify your membership to the participating Dentist from whom you receive treatment.

Where are dental services obtained?

TDP members are not required to select a specific primary dentist. Each member or dependent included under the plan may see ANY participating dentist, including specialists. Referrals are not required. To make an appointment, simply call a participating dental office and tell the receptionist you are a TDP member. Always present your membership card prior to any treatment.

Your membership is valid with ANY Texas Dental Plans, Inc. participating dentist in the state.

information regarding membership

Dental Fees

Most dental procedures are listed on the "Member's Dental Fees" page. Any procedure not listed is still available at a discount, per our fee schedule, unless indicated under "Plan Exclusions and Limitations." Specialist fees are charged at a flat reduction as indicated by your fee schedule.

To receive reduced dental fees, the member is responsible for paying all fees directly to the dental office at the time the dental service is performed or you will be charged the doctor's full fees. Failure to do so could terminate membership.

Dental fees may vary when unusual circumstances and/or materials are required. Consult with your dentist before beginning any treatment.

Emergencies

Members are charged the amounts specified on the fee schedule for dental emergency procedures during regular office hours. Emergencies, during non-office hours and weekends, are charged at the dentist's customary off-hour emergency rate.

Canceling appointments

If you are unable to keep your scheduled appointment, notify your dental office at least 24 hours in advance. Otherwise, you will incur a "broken appointment charge." Broken appointments result in wasted time and increased costs. Please try to keep all appointments.

Grievance procedures

If you have a question concerning dental charges please consult first with your dentist. Direct any grievances to TDP. Unresolved grievances will be settled by arbitration. Call Member Services at 1-800-488-2801.

Group Membership

Special group membership rates are available for groups of five or more enrolled.

Continuous enrollment

If your employment is terminated, you may still be a Texas Dental Plans member through the TDP Individual Enrollment Program. Please contact Texas Dental Plans for assistance.
