INTERMEDIARY AND PRODUCER COMPENSATION NOTICE

MetLife enters into arrangements concerning the sale, servicing and/or renewal of MetLife group insurance and certain other group-related products (“Products”) with brokers, agents, consultants, third-party administrators, general agents, associations, and other parties that may participate in the sale, servicing and/or renewal of such Products (each an “Intermediary”). MetLife may pay your Intermediary compensation, which may include base compensation, supplemental compensation and/or a service fee. MetLife may pay compensation for the sale, servicing and/or renewal of Products, or remit compensation to an Intermediary on your behalf. Your Intermediary may also be owned by, controlled by or affiliated with another person or party, which may also be an Intermediary and who may also perform marketing and/or administration services in connection with your Products and be paid compensation by MetLife.

Base compensation, which may vary from case to case and may change if you renew your Products with MetLife, may be payable to your Intermediary as a percentage of premium or a fixed dollar amount. In addition, supplemental compensation may be payable to your Intermediary. Under MetLife’s current supplemental compensation plan, the amount payable as supplemental compensation may range from 0% to 8% of premium. The supplemental compensation percentage may be based on: (1) the number of Products sold through your Intermediary during a prior one-year period; (2) the amount of premium or fees with respect to Products sold through your Intermediary during a prior one-year period; (3) the persistency percentage of Products inforce through your Intermediary during a prior one-year period; (4) premium growth during a prior one-year period; (5) a fixed percentage of the premium for Products as set by MetLife. The supplemental compensation percentage will be set by MetLife prior to the beginning of each calendar year and it may not be changed until the following calendar year. As such, the supplemental compensation percentage may vary from year to year, but will not exceed 8% under the current supplemental compensation plan.

The cost of supplemental compensation is not directly charged to the price of our Products except as an allocation of overhead expense, which is applied to all eligible group insurance products, whether or not supplemental compensation is paid in relation to a particular sale or renewal. As a result, your rates will not differ by whether or not your Intermediary receives supplemental compensation. If your Intermediary collects the premium from you in relation to your Products, your Intermediary may earn a return on such amounts. Additionally, MetLife may have a variety of other relationships with your Intermediary or its affiliates that involve the payment of compensation and benefits that may or may not be related to your relationship with MetLife (e.g., consulting or reinsurance arrangements).

More information about the eligibility criteria, limitations, payment calculations and other terms and conditions under MetLife’s base compensation and supplemental compensation plans can be found on MetLife’s Web site at www.metlife.com/brokercompensation. Questions regarding Intermediary compensation can be directed to ask4met@metlifeservice.com, or if you would like to speak to someone about Intermediary compensation, please call 1-800-438-6388. In addition to the compensation paid to an Intermediary, MetLife may also pay compensation to your MetLife sales representative. Compensation paid to your MetLife sales representative is for participating in the sale, servicing, and/or renewal of Products, and the compensation paid may vary based on a number of factors including the type of Product(s) and volume of business sold. If you are the person or entity to be charged under an insurance policy or annuity contract, you may request additional information about the compensation your MetLife sales representative expects to receive as a result of the sale or concerning compensation for any alternative quotes presented, by contacting your MetLife sales representative or calling (866) 796-1800.

Premiums for this policy will be paid as shown on page 1. MetLife and the Policyholder may agree that payment be made in advance every 3, 6, or 12 months.

MetLife may use any reasonable method to compute Premiums due under this policy.

Premiums for Changes in Insurance

MetLife may change Premium rates for changes which materially affect the risk assumed for the insurance provided by this policy, as follows:

  - b. the class of persons eligible for insurance under this policy; or
6. when a Premium Due Date coincides with or next follows:
  - a. a change greater than 25% in the number of Covered Persons since the later of the policy Effective Date and the last date Premium rates were changed; or
  - b. a change greater than 25% in the amount of insurance provided by this policy since the later of the policy Effective Date and the last date Premium rates were changed.

In addition, MetLife may change Premium rates:

1. except as may be stated in Exhibit 1, on any date on or after the first Policy Anniversary; this will be done no more frequently than every 12 months and only if MetLife notifies the Policyholder, in Writing, at least 31 days before such change; and
2. on any other date agreed to by MetLife and the Policyholder.

The new Premium rates will apply only to Premiums due on or after the date the rate change takes effect.

GRACE PERIOD

Each Premium due after the effective date of this policy may be paid up to 31 days after its Premium Due Date. This period is the grace period. The insurance provided by this policy will stay in effect during this period. MetLife will notify the Policyholder in Writing that, if the Premium is not paid by the end of the grace period, this policy will end at the end of the last day of the grace period. If MetLife fails to give Written notice to the Policyholder, this policy will continue in effect until the date such notice is given.

Policyholder's intent to end this policy during the grace period. The Policyholder may notify MetLife in Writing prior to the end of the grace period of its intent to end this policy before the end of the grace period. In this case, this policy will end on the later of:

1. the date stated in the notice; or

This policy will end on the date on which the last certificate in effect under this policy ends.

If this policy ends, all Premiums due must be paid. If MetLife accepts Premium after the date this policy ends, such acceptance will not act to reinstate the policy. MetLife will refund any unearned Premium.

REINSTATEMENT

The Policyholder may request to reinstate this policy within one year from the date it ended. The request must be in Writing and it must provide MetLife with information that MetLife requires to consider such request. An amendment or endorsement will not affect the insurance provided under certificates issued before the effective date of the change, unless retroactivity is consistent with applicable law.

An officer of MetLife must approve in Writing any change or waiver of the terms and provisions of this policy. A sales representative, or other MetLife employee, who is not an officer of MetLife, does not have MetLife's authority to approve such changes or waivers. A change or waiver will be evidenced by an amendment Signed by an officer of MetLife and the Policyholder or an endorsement Signed by an officer of MetLife. A copy of the amendment or endorsement will be provided to the Policyholder for attachment to this policy.

Incontestability: Statements Made by the Policyholder. Any statement made by the Policyholder will be considered a representation and not a warranty. Such 2 year time limit does not apply to MetLife's use of fraudulent statements to contest accident and health insurance.

Incontestability: Statements Made by Covered Persons. Any statement made by a Covered Person will be considered a representation and not a warranty. MetLife will not use such statement to avoid insurance, reduce benefits or defend a claim unless the following requirements are met:

If MetLife or the Policyholder make a clerical error in keeping the data, the Premium and/or benefits will be adjusted according to the correct data. An error will not end insurance validly in effect, nor will it continue insurance validly ended.

Misstatement of Age. If a Covered Person's age is misstated, the correct age will be used to determine if insurance is in effect and, as appropriate, adjust benefits.

Non-Dividend Paying. This policy does not pay dividends.
