What happens next?

During the call, we'll ask for your permission to get your medical information. Here's how it works:

- After you give us your claim information, you'll be transferred to a recorded message.
- Listen to the recording and answer Yes or No to the questions.
- At the end of the recording, say Yes if you give permission or No if you do not.
- You can cancel your permission at any time by calling your NYL GBS claim manager.

After the call, NYL GBS will send you a letter. It'll include a copy of the recorded message for your records and a form that gives us permission to get other information we may need to finish processing your claim. Please sign and return that form. Check with your doctor to see if there are any other forms you need to sign.

A NYL GBS claim manager will call you and your employer for a list of your job requirements. The claim manager will also call your doctor for your medical records. This information will help us figure out how long you may be out of work and the benefits you may be able to receive.

What happens if my claim is approved?

- NYL GBS will send you an approval letter that gives you an explanation of your benefits. You may also get a recorded call from NYL GBS with this information.
- NYL GBS will coordinate payment of your benefits as soon as possible.
- NYL GBS will tell your employer that we approved your claim and the date you plan to return to work.

What happens if my claim is denied?

- NYL GBS will send you a letter that explains why. The letter will also tell you how you can appeal the decision.

- NYL GBS will let your employer know the claim is denied.
- You should call your employer when you get the letter to discuss your return-to-work date.

What can I expect while I'm out?

Your NYL GBS claim manager will stay in touch to help you return to work quickly and safely. We may work with you, your doctor and your employer to talk about different work options. This may include an adjustment to your job or work schedule. Your employer may also call you to check on your progress and offer support.

What if I can't return to work on the date my disability benefits end?

- Call your NYL GBS claim manager to talk about the situation and learn about your options.
- Call your employer to let them know when you plan to return to work.
