What information will you need to provide when submitting your claim?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The form will ask you to provide some information about you, and if you're filing the claim for a dependent, their information as well. • Then, select which type of claim you're filing. Continue through the form, only filling out the relevant sections. • In the Benefit Information section, check off each box that applies to the event or services you received as a result of your covered illness and/or accident and/or hospital stay. • Be sure you sign the Authorization to Obtain and Disclose Information (which helps us obtain information for the claim from medical providers, if needed) and sign the claim form itself. In addition to filling out the form, you'll also need to provide supporting documentation to prove the claim. Examples of documents include: ER, urgent care, physician visit or hospital discharge papers; exam, lab or test results/reports; physician notes; Explanation of Benefits (EOBs) from your health insurance provider; itemized medical or hospital bills; or medical records. Please call us for guidance with your claim submission – we're happy to help you understand how to complete the claim successfully. By thoroughly completing the form and gathering your documentation, we'll be able to better serve you and ensure your claim is processed as quickly as possible. We may also need to work with medical providers to fully prove your claim, but we'll let you know during the claims process if this is necessary.
What happens next?	After you submit your claim, our dedicated claims team will review the claim and contact you with any questions or to request additional information needed for your claim. Our goal is to ensure you receive all benefits you're entitled to, as quickly as possible. We will review your total voluntary benefits coverage with The Hartford to determine if you might be eligible for additional benefits based on other insurance policies you've purchased. If you are filing a Critical Illness claim and forgot to tell us about a hospital stay for a Hospital Indemnity claim, for example, we've got you covered. Once the claim has been approved, the standard turnaround time for benefits to be paid is between 3-10 business days.² Standard mail times will apply (if applicable). In the meantime, if you filed your claim online, you can use the site to monitor your claim status and access additional claims-related information at TheHartford.com/benefits/myclaim. For all claims, you are welcome to call 866-547-4205 for claims status or questions.
