Supplemental Medical Expense coverage through Beazley Insurance Company, Inc

Supplemental Medical Expense insurance reimburses out-of-pocket medical expenses (deductibles, co-payments, and coinsurance) for eligible benefits. An underlying major medical plan from your employer must be in force.

ID card:

At the time of service, present your Supplemental Medical ID card, along with your Major Medical card, to your medical service provider. This indicates that you have Supplemental Medical coverage that reimburses eligible out-of-pocket expenses.

Claim Submission:

To submit a claim for your Supplemental Medical Expense insurance coverage, you will need a copy of the Explanation of Benefits (E.O.B.) from your major medical plan that reflects services provided. If the EOB does not specify specific services and diagnosis, please also submit the itemized bill from the provider to expedite the claim process.

It is helpful to write the name of your employer and group number, as identified on your ID card.

The Supplemental Medical Expense (out-of-pocket) plan is not a major medical plan. The product is designed to reimburse certain covered expenses, and is only available if an employer has a major medical plan in place. Out-pocket expenses submitted for reimbursement must be eligible under the major medical plan, and must meet the coverage definitions under our policy (may not include full reimbursement, if annual plan limits have been met). Riders for outpatient chemotherapy/radiation performed in a licensed facility may not be available in all states.

This policy is offered under form number AHGMM0001 052011 Ed. Benefits and range of options may vary by state. Premium will vary based on plan chosen. A waiting period for late entrants may apply. This policy is renewable at the option of the company.
