At Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company, we strive to help our customers protect what they care about, and that includes offering additional services that can help our customers do just that. As a valued group insurance customer, we want to inform you of a recent change regarding our will preparation service.

We are excited to announce that we have partnered with Epoq, Inc. to be our new online will preparation services vendor. Because you offer our Basic Life and/or our Voluntary Term Life coverage to your employees/members, your group now has access to FREE online basic will preparation services through Epoq.

This service is only available to your employees/members, their legal spouse, and their adult child(ren) age 26 and under.

How it works:

- Log on to www.willprepservices.com and use the code MUTUALWILLS (case sensitive) to register
- Answer the simple questions and watch the customization of your document happen in real time
- Download, print and share any document instantly
- Don't forget to update your documents with any major life changes, including marriage, divorce, and birth of a child
- Make the document legally binding - Check with your state for requirements

For more details regarding our new will preparation service, please contact your broker.

Sincerely,

Mutual of Omaha Insurance Company
